

SYNNEX Puts The IT In Security

Success in the fast growing IP surveillance market requires security expertise and IT know-how. Security integrators need quality products and trusting partnerships, and they count on SYNNEX Canada to help them achieve that success. SYNNEX distributes the IT products you need, including IP surveillance cameras and recorders, network infrastructure, computers, storage and displays. We are completely channel-centric, only selling to resellers and integrators – never to your end customer. With over 30 years in distribution, our expertise has helped thousands of resellers successfully service their customers. Our sales and product solution experts are ready to help you keep up with the converging IP surveillance market!
